'THE BIG CHEESE' FAIR AT WISCONSIN'S OSTHOFF RESORT TO BENEFIT LOCAL FOOD PANTRY

ELKHART LAKE, Wis. (May 1, 2018) – The Osthoff Resort in Elkhart Lake, Wis., announced today it will be donating 50 percent of admissions to “The Big Cheese” fair, part of its new Memorial Day weekend event, “The Big Cheese,” to the Sheboygan County Food Bank. The fair takes place Sunday, May 27 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Grand Libelle Ballroom. Admission is $5 per person for ages 13 and older, $2 per child ages 6-12, and free for children 5 and under. Visitors to the fair will be able to browse a foodie-centric marketplace showcasing regional exhibitors and shop for artisan cheeses and breads, wines, jams and jellies, and all things complementary to cheese. Tickets to the fair may be purchased at the door. The Osthoff Resort is located at 101 Osthoff Avenue. Parking is free. For more on the four-day event, including the full line-up of classes and tastings and the Sunday cheese fair, visit www.TheBigCheeseOsthoff.com.

Participating cheesemakers, all within a half-hour's drive of Elkhart Lake, represent the crème de la crème and include Sargento, Sartori, LaClare Farms, Saxon Creamery, Henning's and Deer Creek, plus Masters Gallery which has one of the largest privately held cheese inventories in the country.

The Sheboygan County Food Bank is a free and local food hub that distributes to partner agencies who put food in the hands of local families who need it most. Their vision is to inspire and engage the community to end hunger.
